

TAYLOR..... 'THEN and NOW'

Back then, Taylorites were more sociable, Volleyball was played in the Quadrangle until the wee hours of the morning, Hall Vibes Was evident; we were all our brothers (and Sisters) keepers.

Spine cricket united males and females; we always won, no matter the controversy.

The atmosphere is much more Nonchalant now. The vibes is not as rich, people lyme less, we don't know each other names we are not all as willing.

Regardless of this, the BLUE and WHITE shines bright. Taylor still reins SUPREME. A more earnest passion and affinity has not transcended time.
Despite of the trials we all agree, THEN and NOW, the blue and white still shines bright in our hearts.

TAYLOR IS THE HALL OF HALLS!

Forever.
