

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES
AT MONA, JAMAICA

THE DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION STUDIES

INFOTALKS!

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS 2021-2022

INFOTALKS is a meeting place for everyone with an interest in Information Studies, to learn about current research and activities in Library Studies, Archival Studies, Museum Studies, Records Management, Digital and Internet Studies, Information Technology discuss current trends and share ideas about Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museums, Information and Information Technology.

INFOTALKS WILL BE HELD ONLINE EVERY WEDNESDAY AT 1PM TO 2:30PM STARTING WEDNESDAY 6 OCTOBER 2021.

INFOTALKS Presentations can focus on new policy ideas, newly implemented professional practices, discussions on new programmes, collections and methods, panel discussions, debates, reviews of publications, as well as traditional papers. The Department of Library and Information Studies is welcoming proposals for presentations for 2021-2022.

ABOUT THE DLIS

The Department of Library and Information Studies (DLIS) at The University of the West Indies, Mona Campus, Jamaica, is the premier English-speaking institution for the study of Information Studies and training Information Professionals to meet leadership needs in information services of the Caribbean region and wider global society. The Department offers courses and programmes in the disciplines of Archival Studies, Library Studies, Museum Studies and Records Management. In all its course offerings, special attention is paid to the socio-developmental needs and interests of the countries and peoples of the Caribbean, while mindful of international trends, advancements and best practices

To Submit a Proposal or For Further Information, Contact:
Dr. Stanley H. Griffin, Seminar Series Coordinator
The University of the West Indies, Mona Campus,
Kingston, Jamaica
Email: infotalksdlis@gmail.com