Case 3: Library Space planning

A call has been made by an attorney-at-law (with specialty in sports law) for the Government to set up a National Sports Museum. The attorney sees where a National Sports Museum must be established in order to continue nation-building through sports. The attorney's idea of a National Sports Museum includes a building where locals and foreigners could view sports memorabilia, footage from sporting events, and a seminar room for ongoing discussions, seminars, talks and lecture on sport.

3a. Explain what THREE (3) preparations would you suggest to be undertaken before a place/space is identified for such a museum? (6 marks)

3b. Discuss space design considerations for any of the potential services that the museum could offer to potential visitors (as recommended by the attorney). (3 marks)

3c. Elaborate on THREE (3) basic requirements for a library building. (3 marks)

3d. Identify THREE (3) spaces outside of the spaces that users will interface with that may be required for such a museum and justify their inclusion in the building plan. (3 marks)

SECTION B – Essays: Each question carries 15 marks

4. Discuss THREE (3) leadership styles and the circumstances to which these leadership styles are best suited.

5. Write an essay discussing THREE (3) factors that can cause Caribbean workers to lose their motivation for work.

6. Write an essay giving THREE (3) strategies in which library management can implement planned change into libraries with appropriate illustrations/examples.
