A total of 559 students visited the Earthquake Unit for the 2012 calendar year. There were 14 visits from 11 schools. Of the 11 schools 5 were from outside the Kingston Metropolitan Area. Two visits were from children attending summer school run by the Department of Geography and Geology, UWI.