

GENERAL INFORMATION

Registration/Information/General Assistance

Registration Desk (The Conference Reception Area)

Thursday, September 29, 2016

12:30 pm – 4:30 pm

Friday, September 30, 2016

8:00 am – 4:30 pm

Main Sessions

Sessions: I, II, IV, V, VI

College of The Bahamas Auditorium

Grosvenor Close Campus

Nassau, The Bahamas

Opening Night

Session III

Paul Farquharson Conference Centre

East Street, Nassau

The Bahamas

Audience

The information presented is directed mainly at the members of the healthcare team but is also designed to facilitate understanding amongst the general public.

Conference Learning Objectives

- Implement strategies to impact non-communicable diseases
- Describe quality of life issue among healthcare providers
- Describe the trends in male and female sexual dysfunction
- Determine, how computer technology influences learning and practising of medicine
- Discuss infant morbidity in The Bahamas
- Determine HIV trends and bacterial resistance patterns in The Bahamas
- Describe the cancer profiles in The Bahamas

Continuing Medical Education Credits

The Bahamas Medical Council has approved this programme for CME credits.