

Programme

Thursday, September 27, 2018

Day One

7:00 am – 4:00 pm

REGISTRATION

SESSION I

Research Publication Workshop – 1.5 CME hours

8:00 am – 9:30 am

*Workshop
Presentation of research proposals and finished projects
Peer comments
Expert comments*

9:30 am – 10:00 am

COFFEE BREAK

SESSION II

Research Methodology Workshop – 2.0 CME hours

10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Quantitative research in medicine: On involving people in directing their own health needs

Clemon George

Variable personnel research team management

Morton Frankson

Optimizing the teaching of statistics and research methods for medical trainees

Glenn Jones

You cannot always blame the journal: Common mistakes in scientific manuscripts

Gustavo Mery

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

LUNCH

SESSION III

Formal opening – 1.0 CME hour

1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

Welcome Remarks

Darron Halliday

Formal opening

Robin Roberts
*RBC Representative
Ministers of Government*

Translational and clinical research in gynaecologic oncology: Opportunities for collaboration

Brian Slomovitz

*Keynote lecture: Royal Bank of Canada Lecture
From rubble to conjoined twins separation: Evolution of a healthcare infrastructure to support paediatric surgery in post-earthquake Haiti*

Henri Ford

2:30 pm – 3:00 pm

BREAK

SESSION IVTrauma/Critical Care - 2.0 CME hours

3:00 pm – 5:00 pm

*Keynote lecture: Transforming Violent Cities to Safe Communities - The Evidence-based ApproachMallory WilliamsAetiology, source and outcome of paediatric intensive care unit admissions in The Bahamas: A retrospective chart reviewCharneca KnowlesTimeliness of utilization of reperfusion therapy in acute ischaemic stroke patients at Princess Margaret Hospital, Nassau, The BahamasJessica MossTrauma whipple: A call option in complex pancreatico-duodenal injuriesVantario TaylorWeight bias and stigma towards obese patients by physicians and medical students in The BahamasDerwin JohnsonKeynote lecture: Promoting sexual health and disease prevention: Embracing advances in behavioural and therapeutic approaches towards ending HIV and HPV related diseases in The BahamasClemon George*Friday, September 28, 2018*Day Two*SESSION V*Oncology and Patient-centred Care - 2.0 CME hours

8:00 am – 10:00 am

*Keynote lecture: The effect of time on cancer controlGlenn JonesModifiable and non-modifiable risk factors for breast cancer in women attending to the Oncology Centre at Princess Margaret Hospital and Family Medicine Clinics at Community Clinics in New Providence, The BahamasMerrilyn Wallace-BainMetastatic breast cancer to the eye: A rare case reportAnna Major-BastianParental knowledge, attitudes and intention toward the human papilloma virus vaccination of children ages 9–17 years in public health clinics on New Providence Island, The BahamasTonette HannaImplementing the new standards of care for treating metastatic prostate cancer in The Bahamas is unaffordableRobin RobertsKeynote lecture: Examining diversity of cancer risk factors and risk reduction behaviours among US-born Blacks, Caribbean and African immigrantsCamille Ragin

10:00 am – 10:30 am

COFFEE BREAK

SESSION VIChoice, Culture and Health – 1.5 CME hours

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Keynote lecture: Dream-A-World culture therapies: A holistic and primary prevention approach to mental health

Frederick Hickling

Drivers and determinant factors in the choice of specialty among medical students and junior physicians in The Bahamas

Reghu Philip-Kurian

Healthcare professional's perception of the benefits of teledermatology in the management of common skin conditions within The Bahamas

Rokeisha Clare-Kleinbussink

Keynote lecture: The case for collaborative care in The Bahamas

Eugenia Combie

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Royal Bank of Canada: LUNCH AND LEARNSESSION VII*Introspection and Intervention – 2.0 CME hours

1:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Keynote lecture: Group process as an intervention for resocialization in The Bahamas

David Allen

A retrospective study evaluating the effects of misoprostol versus non-misoprostol agents on cardiotocography and its correlation with maternal and fetal outcome at the Princess Margaret Hospital

Rodean Wallace

Knowledge, understanding and recall of informed consent for patients undergoing Caesarean sections at the Princess Margaret Hospital

Nneka Ijeoma

Knowledge, attitudes and practices regarding vector-borne diseases among public healthcare workers in The Bahamas

Maxine Gonzales

Knee osteoarthritis and its impact on the quality of life of adults actively utilizing the government clinic services in Exuma, The Bahamas

Deval Smith-Rolle

Determining associations between the occurrence of depression and socio-demographic factors in persons 65 years and older presenting to the Accident & Emergency Department of the Princess Margaret Hospital

Latoya Storr

Keynote lecture: Confronting the illusion of people-centred care: The case for integration

Gustavo Mery