The Huawei Seeds Scholarship

Scholarship Aim

Information and communications technology (ICT) has become critical to driving the development of many industries. As a leader in ICT, Huawei is committed to promoting the development of the ICT industry in the countries where it operates, and aims to drive long-term economic, social, and environmental sustainability.

The aim of the Huawei Seeds Scholarship Award is to provide financial support to Jamaican students who are interested in the ICT industry and to promote the development of young ICT talents within this Country. Huawei's vision and mission is to bring digital to every person, home and organization for a fully connected, intelligent world.
