

IAN ALLEN/PHOTOGRAPHER

Professor Ishenkumba Kahwa (right), dean of the Faculty of Pure and Applied Sciences, University of the West Indies (UWI), in discussion with Professor Gordon Shirley (left), pro-vice-chancellor and principal of the UWI, Mona, and Stephen Hallihan, Canada's high commissioner to Jamaica, during the opening of the university's Geology Museum (UWIGM) Interactive Learning Centre at the Department of Geography and Geology yesterday. The project is funded by the Canadian International Development Agency's Canada Fund for Local Initiatives.