GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP PROGRAMME
ACADEMIC YEAR 2020/2021

The Department of Government (DGOV), University of the West Indies, is accepting applications for its 2020/2021 Graduate Assistantship Programme. The Graduate Assistantship (GA) programme is a support programme that provides financial assistance to students registered full-time as Postgraduate Students, in exchange for the satisfactory fulfilment of assigned duties and activities as assigned by the Department. The value of the financial support is directly applied towards tuition fees only. Any other fees or shortfall as identified by the Bursary, is the sole responsibility of the awardee and must be settled upfront.

This Academic year, each awardee will receive a total of J$230,000 for the Assistantship which will be paid in installments and applied on a semester by semester basis. These payments are made by and are the responsibility of the University’s Bursary Department. However, it is to be noted that any deficiency ascertained in the performance of duties, service delivery or conduct will result in an immediate 20% reduction in the award, as upon the recommendation of the Head of Department.
