OVERVIEW AND GENERAL INFORMATION
SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAMME

OVERVIEW

The Faculty of Humanities and Education’s 2011 Summer School Programme will be held during the period June 1 to July 15, 2011. Students who register in the summer school programme are subject to all faculty and university regulations. Students are reminded that the Summer School programme is OPTIONAL. Students should therefore be mindful that arrangements given during Semesters 1 or 2 do not necessarily hold during the summer period. Courses that are not fully subscribed will not be offered. To be fully subscribed, a course should have a minimum of twenty fully paid-up students by May 31, 2011.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Course Load

Students of the Faculty of Humanities and Education can register for a maximum of THREE 3-credit courses (including Exams Only) during the 2011 Summer School period. Students are advised to check the timetable before registering so as to avoid course clashes. Refunds will not be granted for any “clashed course” save where there has been a timetable change resulting in the clash.

Who can register?

The following categories of students are eligible for admission to the Summer School programme:

UWI Students:

- Registered students of the University who wish to repeat any of the courses offered.
- Registered students of the University who have not taken the course(s) previously but fall into one of the following categories:
  - Students of the University who have not yet completed the requirements for the degree, diploma or certificate programme for which they are registered.
  - Registered UWI students from other UWI campuses.
- Students of the University who have been granted (a) leave of absence for Semester 1 and/or 2 preceding the Summer School, or (b) deferral of entry. Such students should register at the start of the Summer School, for Summer School only. Students who are on leave of absence for an entire year and who wish to do summer school are required to pay miscellaneous fees.

Non-UWI Students:

- Other persons, who are not students of the University, who are eligible to matriculate at either the normal or lower level are eligible for admission to the Summer School Programme. (These students must register in the Summer School programme and also with the Admissions Section of the University as Specially Admitted Students).
