Film Studies is a discipline that promotes serious reflection on cinema and its place within history and culture. This interdisciplinary programme allows students to examine the ways in which film advances various artistic, cultural or political values, and shapes society by influencing our imagined place within it. Critical analysis of the visual image is at the core of this programme which aims to equip students to compete in an increasingly visual world. The programme fosters a deep understanding of cinema as a cultural industry and one of the largest creative industries in the world. Students who complete this programme are expected to become key players in the local and film industry, film culture, supporting and associated industries.

This flexible, interdisciplinary Major allows students to select courses that reflect their professional interests; it empowers them to build a programme tailored to their needs and career paths.

The courses in Film Studies fall into three (3) clusters:

- Film Studies cluster
- Humanities cluster
- Multidisciplinary cluster

Film Studies Cluster:
‘Core’ film courses fall within this cluster. In these courses students learn the skills and concepts of the discipline and are exposed to the history of film, connecting the rise of cinema in the Caribbean to historical film movements from around the world. Students will discover that film consists of fundamental building blocks, including narrative, image, soundtrack, mise-en-scène and editing.

Humanities Cluster:
Students will select an academic discipline in the Humanities to explore alongside Film Studies. This additional disciplinary focus helps provide an understanding of the broader context in which film operates, whether historical, social, philosophical, or cultural. The courses in this cluster encourage students to explore synergies with phenomena in literature, communication, translation, and/or documentary.

Multidisciplinary Cluster
This cluster provides students with the opportunity to specialize in a field of their choice, which means each student tailors the degree to their interests. Each of the following options can be thought of as a “package” of courses from which students will select.
Cluster options:
1: Cinematic and Audio-Visual Arts
2: Research & Documentation
3: Digital Arts, Science & Education
4: Speech, Voice & Language
5: The Performing Arts
6: Writing
7: Languages and Globalization
8: Multidisciplinary Approaches to Culture
9: Business & Entrepreneurship
10: Public Policy & Economy
11: Film Production

STUDENTS SELECTING THIS MAJOR ARE STRONGLY ADVISED TO SEEK COUNSELLING ON COURSE SELECTION AND THE PROGRAMME STRUCTURE AT THE DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURES IN ENGLISH.

2. HUMANITIES LIBERAL STUDIES CLUSTER - 24 credits

Each student selects one Humanities option in the Liberal Studies programme. This cluster represents the student’s academic concentration.

Contribution to the programme: This cluster provides students with grounding in an academic discipline. It twins their interest in Film Studies with a disciplinary focus which - depending on the option selected - provides an understanding of the broader context in which film operates, be it historical, social, philosophical, or cultural; and which allows them to explore synergies with phenomena in literature, communication, translation, and/or documentation.

Description: See existing Humanities options under the Faculty of Humanities and Education Liberal Studies programme.*

Humanities options:
1. Cultural Studies
2. History
3. Linguistics
4. Philosophy
5. Literatures in English
6. French
7. Spanish
8. Information Studies

*Options may change as the programme is currently under review.
3. MULTIDISCIPLINARY CLUSTER – 24 credits

Each student selects one Multidisciplinary option in an area related to film. This cluster represents the student’s multidisciplinary concentration.

Contribution to the programme: This cluster provides students with opportunities to explore topics in film or film industries from a variety of perspectives. Each multidisciplinary cluster consists of a range of courses that students select from. The programme thus optimizes students’ choices, and will enable them to tailor their programme to their interests and needs.

Cluster options:

Cluster (1): Cinematic and Audio-Visual Arts
This cluster allows students to explore the visual and audio/aural modes of communication from the perspectives of their creative content, their production, and their place in contemporary culture.

Cluster (2): Research & Documentation
This cluster allows students to develop the skills to engage in researching, documenting, and reporting on Film and Film Industry.

Cluster (3): Digital Arts, Science & Education
This is a cluster geared towards students who have an interest in ICT and its applications to and for film industry, for instance to reach audiences and markets, to develop training tools, and to develop content.

Cluster (4): Speech, Voice & Language
This is a cluster which focuses on the technical aspects of voice use and vocal production. It is geared both to those who might (aspire to) function as performers, accent trainers, coaches, broadcasters, or in any other profession which revolves around the voice in performance.

Cluster (5): The Performing Arts
This cluster is intended for students who see themselves as involved in the dramatic performance aspect of film production.

Cluster (6): Writing
This cluster is aimed at students who are interested in developing skills in all areas of writing which might be relevant to the film industry, whether these be at the creative or the business end of the industry.

Cluster (7): Languages and Globalization
This cluster is intended for students who have an existing or developing proficiency in at least one foreign language and are interested in the role of languages as vehicles of cultural transmission. Their professional interests may include the translation across languages and cultures of texts about or in film and/or other forms of communication across linguistic and cultural boundaries in the globalization of the film industry.

This cluster requires a minimum of 27 credits.

Cluster (8): Multidisciplinary Approaches to Culture
This cluster is intended for students who have an academic interest in the study of culture and in the pursuit of research which supports the film industry. It allows for the critical examination of cultural practices at different levels (local, regional, global) from academic perspectives which include gender studies, philosophy, anthropology/sociology, and history.

Cluster (9): Business & Entrepreneurship
This cluster is for students whose interests are in the business end of the film industry, and who see themselves managing practitioners, events, marketing strategies, and developing their own business ideas.

Cluster (10): Public Policy & Economy
This Cluster targets students with an interest in public policy and who see themselves working at the national, regional, or global level in bodies operating in the public sphere, whether governmental or non-governmental, with relevance to the film industry.

Cluster (11): Film Production
This cluster aims at providing students exposure to the technical demands of film production, and hands-on experience in the team work involved in the production process. At the same time, it allows students to interrogate the role of the visual image in communication across different contexts, including media alongside film. NB Students selecting courses in this cluster must be aware that a different fee structure is applicable to any FILM courses.
