News Highlights

Message from the Executive Director

Season's Greetings from us all at MSBM! 2020 has been a year that has tested all of us here within the Mona School of Business (MSBM) community. The COVID-19 pandemic has presented us with a myriad of challenges and excitement that we could have done without, so here's to a dull and boring 2021, although I suspect that we won't be quite that lucky.

Congrats to the Graduating Class of 2020

Mona School of Business and Management (MSBM) congratulates the Graduating Class of 2020! Well done! You did it! This has been an extremely challenging year, but you persevered and overcame, finishing strong! Your cohort has the distinction of being the first to complete your degree in a virtual/remote mode. Though the task was great, and at times seemed insurmountable, many lessons have been learned and together we have forged a new path. We look forward to the UWI Graduation for the Faculty of Social Sciences which will take place virtually on January 15, 2021 at 10:00am.

MSBM Tourism Majors host Virtual Tourism Conference

As part of the fulfilment of the requirement of their degree, The University of the West Indies, Mona School of Business and Management (MSBM), Events Management Class of 2020, hosted a regional three-day virtual conference from November 25 to 27, 2020. Under the theme, "Revamping Caribbean Tourism Post COVID-19" the high-level Conference offered robust panel discussions led by regional experts who focused on how to innovatively pivot from the Pandemic. Eight teams head to the Vincent HoSang UWI Venture Competition Finals

The semi-finals of the annual Vincent HoSang UWI Venture Competition (UWIVC) was held over two days on December 7 and December 8, 2020. Based on the global pandemic, this year's Competition including the Boot Camp sessions was executed in a virtual mode. Twenty-two (22) teams comprised of both graduate and undergraduate students from all faculties presented their ideas to a panel of five judges for a place in the finals of the Competition.
