- Faculty of Science and Technology
- Faculty of Sport

Cumulatively, the faculties offer over 300 academic programmes at all levels i.e. Bachelors, Masters and PhD.

❖ Faculties and Facilities: -
Our faculties are equipped with the relevant resources to enhance student learning, development and engagement. Student engagement is seen as a priority at The University of the West Indies and as such students are provided with the necessary facilities to facilitate and complement their competencies. The UWI, Mona is known and recognized for having the world renowned Usain Bolt Track and Field training facility and is a training centre for many world class athletes. Students can also access their notes, course curricula and other reference materials online via the University’s Ourvle (Our Virtual Learning Environment) platform. Students have access to libraries as well as hundreds of online journals that the UWI subscribes to.
→ Health and Wellness Facilities

The Mona Campus has an excellent health care facility at the campus health centre, with referrals to the University Hospital. Students and staff contribute to a compulsory health insurance scheme. The facility provides students with access to medical practitioners, dentists, nurses and professional counsellors, there is also an organized student peer counselling facility available at the centre. Attention is also placed on wellness programmes and wellness spaces on campus with adequate nutrition options available on campus through a variety of food outlets monitored by public health inspectors.

→ Facilities for Students with Special Needs

The Office for Special Student Services (OSSS), assisted by the Committee for Students with Disabilities, has oversight for the development of policies and services, and the transformation of the Campus facilities to accommodate students with disabilities. The Centre for Disability Studies is an outgrowth of the OSSS and is headed by a graduate who herself is a past beneficiary. The Campus is now seen as the leading tertiary educational institution in the English-speaking Caribbean catering to the needs of the disabled. Services include:

- motorised service;
- mobility sessions – teaching the visually impaired routes to unfamiliar places;
- volunteer reading service;
- provision of computers equipped with speech programmes and internet;
- braille services;
- electronic hearing and speaking aids;
- special arrangements for examinations; and

The area of learning disabilities is also being addressed however they are some disabilities that the Campus is currently not adequately able to treat with and as such prospective students are required to declare any special need that they may have at the point of submission of their application.

→ IT Facilities

The University of the West Indies, Mona has a campus-wide fibre-optic data network providing connectivity to all our Faculties (academic departments, Centres), Libraries and Administrative entities with internet services facilitated by 1.57Gbps (1570 Mbps) bandwidth wide-area network connectivity to multiple Internet services providers (ISPs). In addition, there is a campus-wide wireless network which consists of 1000 access points and we have a current project to commission an additional 1000 access point, which once completed will result in the UWI, Mona having the largest wireless network in the Country.
❖ Financial Aid Options: Eligible U.S. nationals attending The University of the West Indies, Mona Campus are qualified for funding using federal funds under one of, or a combination of the following financial aid options:

i) Direct Subsidized Loan – Available to undergraduate students that demonstrate a financial need, with no interest charged to the student if (s)he is registered at least part-time or if within their allowed grace period.

ii) Direct Unsubsidized Loan – Available to both undergraduate and postgraduate students with the interest charged to the student from the day the loan is disbursed. Students are not required to demonstrate financial need to access this financing option.

iii) Direct Plus Loans for Graduate or Professional Students – This is not available to undergraduate students and all eligible students are required to undergo a credit check to secure eligibility.

iv) Direct Plus Loans for Parents of Undergraduate Students – This is an unsubsidized loan available only to the parents of “dependent” undergraduate students who may borrow up to the Cost of Attendance minus other financial assistance.

For further information on how to access funds and the requirements to access the funds, students may visit the Office of Student Financing.

❖ Financial Aid Package

The UWI accepts applications for U.S. Federal Student Aid up until June 30th preceding the academic year in which the programme will begin for U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens. Students are required to complete and submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to determine their eligibility. The University will review approved submissions as prescribed by the U.S. Education Department and package financial aid based on the student’s individual circumstance which includes their available resources for post-secondary education. Priority will be given to continuing students that have satisfied SAP requirements. Additionally, keen attention will be placed on students with low Estimated Financial Assistance in relation to the Cost of Attendance for their respective programme.

Late Applications

There is no guarantee that applications submitted after the prescribed deadline will be considered and access to financial aid will be dependent on the availability of funds once the needs of the applicants that submitted applications within the prescribed deadline has been satisfied.

PLUS Loans for parents or graduate/professional students do not have fixed annual or aggregate loan limits. Parent of undergraduate dependent students may borrow any amount up to the student’s annual cost of attendance after all other estimated financial assistance has been considered.

Appealing of Award Package

Students that are not satisfied with the financial aid package that they have been awarded may submit an appeal to the Campus Registrar in writing. This submission must be made within seven (7) days of being officially notified of the package awarded.

❖ Financial Counselling – Entrance and Exit

Student borrowers are required to participate in loan counseling at the beginning of the programme (Entrance) and close to the end of the programme in anticipation of repayment of the funds borrowed (Exit). All first time borrowers will be required to undergo Entrance Counselling once there is confirmation that the student is eligible for financial assistance. This counselling is a prerequisite for disbursements to be made to offset any charges related to the students enrollment and must be completed before the first disbursement is made. During Entrance counselling students will be informed of the total federal student aid being provided as well as the terms and conditions under which the loan is being provided including the requirements for maintaining eligibility for funding. Students that receive assistance from the Federal Student Aid programme will be required to undergo Exit Counselling at the point in which (s)he is identified for programme completion, has dropped below the allowed part-time registration requirement or has indicated their withdrawal from the programme. During Exit counselling students will be provided with important information relating to the repayment of their loan which includes the average anticipated monthly repayment and repayment options which encompasses loan consolidation.
