

MONA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

Mona School of Business and Management (MSBM) was established on August 1, 2012. It evolved from the merger of the former Mona School of Business (MSB) that had a 25 year history of delivering master's level business management education and the Department of Management Studies (DOMS) which had a rich 42 years history of delivering undergraduate and graduate management programmes. MSBM is a key plank of the University of the West Indies (UWI) Mona's value proposition to its constituents in Jamaica and the region. Specifically, its mandate is to be the arm of the University that facilitates effective business education and practices in the private and public sectors in order to advance the economic development agenda of Jamaica and the region.

TESTIMONIAL

My FSS journey has been a great experience so far. I was a natural science student in high school and switching to the social sciences was not easy but the administrative and academic staff at the Mona School of Business and Management helped to make the transition seamless. Although this was new territory for me and the courses looked daunting I decided that I would excel no matter the obstacles that were ahead of me. I am currently pursuing a Bachelor of Sciences Accounting and Economics Degree and I am able to engage with students from all walks of life who are on the same path as I am dedicated and motivated for excellence. Additionally, I am involved in co-curricular activities along with being a budding entrepreneur. These opportunities have allowed me to be a well-versed individual. I want to thank MSBM and its staff members for encouraging me to think globally and spread my wings.
